

Content Reviewer

Volunteer Role

Overview

We are seeking a Volunteer Content Reviewer to join our team and help ensure the quality and accuracy of the Bible study materials and micro church resources we produce. In this role, you will review content to ensure it aligns with our mission, biblical teachings, and quality standards. Your feedback will play a key role in the finalization of resources used by micro churches and study groups.

Responsibilities

- Review Bible study materials, discussion guides, and micro church resources for accuracy, clarity, and biblical alignment (Faith Alignment Guide provided).
- Provide constructive feedback to content creators to enhance the quality of the material.
- Ensure content is clear, accessible, and relevant to the target audience.
- Collaborate with content creators, editors, and other team members to finalize materials.
- Maintain confidentiality and uphold the organization's values in all reviews.

Qualifications

- Strong understanding of the Bible and Christian teachings.
- Attention to detail and a passion for ensuring high-quality, theologically sound resources.
- Ability to provide clear and constructive feedback.
- Excellent written communication skills.
- Experience in reviewing or editing content is helpful but not required.

Time Commitment

This is a flexible volunteer position with a time commitment based on the volume of materials needing review. Volunteers can work at their own pace to meet deadlines.

How to Apply

If you are passionate about ensuring the accuracy and quality of faith-based resources, please submit a resume and a brief statement of interest. We welcome any examples of previous content review or feedback experience, though they are not required.

We look forward to hearing from you!
