

Content Creator

Volunteer Role

Overview

We are seeking a passionate and creative individual to join our team as a Volunteer Content Creator. In this role, you will develop engaging and biblically sound resources to support micro churches and Bible study groups. Your work will help equip and empower others in their faith journey by providing high-quality, accessible materials.

Responsibilities

- Create Bible study materials, discussion guides, and micro church resources.
- Develop multimedia content, including videos and podcasts, to support learning and discipleship.
- Ensure all content aligns with biblical teachings and the mission of our organization (Faith Alignment Guide provided).
- Collaborate with the team to produce high-quality, engaging resources.
- Comply with peer review policies before publishing any Open Door content.
- Adapt content for different formats to effectively reach and equip micro churches.

Qualifications

- Strong knowledge of the Bible, Christian teachings, historical and cultural references.
- Excellent writing, communication, and storytelling skills.
- Experience in content creation, such as writing, video production, or podcasting (preferred but not required).
- Ability to work independently and meet deadlines when necessary.
- Passion for equipping micro churches and small faith communities.

Time Commitment

This is a flexible volunteer position. Time commitment varies based on content production needs and availability.

How to Apply

If you are interested in using your creative skills to support micro churches and Bible study groups, please submit a resume and a brief statement of interest. We welcome any samples of past work, but they are not required.

We look forward to hearing from you!
